"A Mighty Fortress Is Our God"

Dr. David Boyd

1. A mighty fortress is our God, a bulwark never failing;
our helper he amid the flood of mortal ills prevailing.
For still our ancient foe doth seek to work us woe;
his craft and pow'r are great, and armed with cruel hate,
on earth is not his equal.
2. Did we in our own strength confide, our striving would be losing, were not the right man on our side, the man of God's own choosing.
Dost ask who that may be? Christ Jesus, it is he;
Lord Sabaoth, his name, from age to age the same,
and he must win the battle.
3. And though this world, with devils filled, should threaten to undo us, we will not fear, for God hath willed his truth to triumph through us.
The Prince of Darkness grim, we tremble not for him;
his rage we can endure, for lo, his doom is sure;
one little word shall fell him.
4. That word above all earthly pow'rs, no thanks to them, abideth;
the Spirit and the gifts are ours, thru him who with us sideth.
Let goods and kindred go, this mortal life also;
the body they may kill; God's truth abideth still;
his kingdom is forever.

Message "Weathering the Storms" Rev. Erik Hoeke

Music "Turn Your Eyes Upon Jesus" (2x) Dr. David Boyd
Turn your eyes upon Jesus,
look full in his wonderful face,
and the things of earth will grow strangely dim
in the light of his glory and grace.

Prayers Let Pastor Erik know of any concerns at

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

Announcements

Music "It Is Well with My Soul" Dr. David Boyd

1. When peace, like a river, attendeth my way,
when sorrows like sea billows roll;
whatever my lot, thou hast taught me to say,
it is well, it is well with my soul.

*Refrain: It is well (it is well) with my soul (with my soul),
It is well, it is well with my soul.*

2. Though Satan should buffet, though trials should come,
let this blest assurance control,
that Christ has regarded my helpless estate,
and has shed his own blood for my soul. [Refrain]

3. My sin, oh, the bliss of this glorious thought!
 My sin, not in part but the whole,
 is nailed to the cross, and I bear it no more,
 praise the Lord, praise the Lord, O my soul! [Refrain]
4. And, Lord, haste the day when my faith shall be sight, the clouds be rolled back as a scroll;
 the trump shall resound, and the Lord shall descend,
 even so, it is well with my soul. [Refrain]

Benediction

The altar flowers are given to the glory of God.

50 Cups of Coffee: an invitation from Pastor Erik

"Will you visit from house to house?"

- United Methodist Book of Discipline, ¶336.15

At the heart of this question, and its modern translation, is the idea that pastors and congregants are supposed to share life together. That's been really hard to do over the past 14 months, and I think we're all feeling its absence. I know I am.

50 Cups of Coffee is a chance to reconnect over coffee or while doing something else. I am completely flexible in how you wish to meet. I'll come to your home, sit with you on the church lawn, or meet you in a public place. We can grab coffee, go for ice cream, or take a walk. It's up to you – get creative! There's only one rule: we can't meet inside the church building!

Sign up for a time at averyunitedmethodistchurch.org/50-cups-of-coffee or call the church office. If you don't see a time listed that works for you, text or email me with a suggested time, date, and meeting place/activity and we'll work something out. If you're still not ready to meet with me in person, that's okay. I'll be here when you are ready.
